

PAP15 Pain in children

	CT3	ST4-6	Assessment Methods	GMP Domains
Knowledge	Know how to assess pain in children Know the range of options to relieve pain – non-pharmacological and pharmacological - agents, routes of administration, dosage Know how to select best option. Know the safe doses, side effects and toxicity of different agents Know principles of how to safely sedate using ketamine including use of sedation check lists, management of complications including laryngospasm and discharge instructions	Become more expert in the use of all analgesics in children especially ketamine	E, ACAT, AA, C, Mi, L	1
Skills	Be able to prescribe and safely deliver nasal diamorphine, intravenous opiates, local anaesthetic blocks, oral analgesics and entonox		E, ACAT, AA, C, Mi, L, D	1, 3